"Day of the Song"

October 11, 11:00AM local time

Invitation from Jeanne White Eagle

Here is hoping that you've received your invitation to CREATE a SPONTANEOUS SONG to sing on the "Day of the Song" on October 11th, at 11:00AM (your time). I'm asking that you be willing to create a brand new song... a song without words, without thought, only with the intention of Love. This is based on a dream I had more than a year ago where I was given a date. No plot. Nothing more than a date: October 12th. Now, I don't know what is going to happen on that date. I'm trusting it will be something wonderful. Behind the October 12th date, barely visible was October 11th. It is only recently that it has become clear that what I was being asked to do was invite the world to sing, to create a SPONTANEOUS song on the 11th. This song is to raise and shift the vibration of our beloved planet and all life here. With no other information than what I was given, this song seems to be in preparation for the 12th and whatever is to take place or will be set into motion at that time.

For those who are not familiar with Spontaneous Singing as I'm asking you to do it on October 11th, I've decided to do, on YouTube.com, some short 5-minute sharings about "Spontaneous Singing: What is it? Why now??" I encourage you to take a look at these. In addition there will ongoing announcements on the "DAY of the SONG" to take place October 11th. You can easily access the YouTube videos by going to www.youtube.com and typing in Jeanne White Eagle or 13Saibaba1.

Start marking your Calendars. Spread the word. Sing a new song on October 11th, 11:00AM local time. Your voice will make the difference. It's time.

FOR THE ONE SPOTLIGHT

Brett Almond: There are few people who can put in what seem to be an unlimited number of hours and the energy to help a vision find its way into full manifestation and still manage to keep a sense of humor. Brett is one of those people. It was clear years ago that Brett not only would lead the "For the One" Dance but that he brought to the people an extraordinary gift for understanding and communicating the deeper levels of what this dance vision is about. He has given tirelessly of himself in more ways than we can count. And the truth is that because of him, many lives have been touched and changed in extraordinary ways. Thank you, Brett, for who you are and for all that you do.
We love you!!

Anael Harpaz: If you want to see what an angel looks like, take a look into the eyes of Anael. Here is a soul who epitomizes selflessness and love. She is one of those people that creates an air of safety simply through her presence. In the eleven years of knowing Anael, we have learned that however traumatic an experience may be, always there is the light that shines through and hope becomes a reality. We have watched her give of herself to the people without hesitation and with no other intent than to love who and what was in front of her. Because of her, the lives of those of us involved with the "For the One" Dance, the Israeli and Palestinian teenagers she has nurtured, and so many more, will never be the same. Thank you, Anael, for being the beautiful soul that you are.
We love you!! We love you!!

Dance Community Workshops Training

Brett Almond and Candy Barbee have created a new website: www.forthetheone.com. On this site you will find the latest information on what is scheduled for upcoming dances, community happenings, workshops and training of the For The One Organization.

We have been working hard on the new www.Forthetheone.com website. This is a custom built website that lists all FTO dances, community buildings, workshops etc. It is scalable so it is ready to accommodate more and more listings as time goes by.

We are still building up the information on there, but all information you see is correct. We have invested mainly in the functionality of the site. Over time we will look further at the design.

We wanted to have a place that people could go to find out the latest events and dates, see which venues are planned, who is leading events, get travel information and see photos of the dance sites and the countryside. As we have information, we will update it here, so you can get to planning which events you wish to come to earlier in the year.

You will also find more articles and videos over time (there are a few up there already). There are pages on each country where dances are held with travel information, photos, and bios of the chiefs and crew.

There is a blog by Jeanne White Eagle, and there are articles from several people about the dances.

There is also a section of creative expression of poetry, prose, and artwork of the community.

We hope this website will inform, educate and excite you and your friends and help you schedule your involvement with For The One. So, go take a look at www.forthetheone.com and please give us any feedback and ideas / requests.

Love,
Brett

"For The One" Dance in Croatia

A Dance for Peace

August 26th- 29th
Pasjak, Kastelir, Porec, Croatia

With Dance Leaders: Frauke Sophia Peters & Jens Ivers

Several years ago, Jeanne White Eagle was given a vision of a "singing dance," a dance whose purpose was to awaken the memory of who we are and where we come from... a dance to bring what has been separated, back together again. The name of the dance is "For the One."

In a time of severe polarization on our planet, choices are being made that have the potential of creating mass divisiveness at many levels. It is time to remember who we are... that we, and all life are connected as parts of a single consciousness; and as each of us interacts with our world on a daily basis, we either create further separation or we remember who we are and find the grace and strength to love what is in front of us in each passing moment.

In this dance, as the drum carries the dancer to the sacred center, the dancer will sing spontaneously the sounds that will take her or him to the original vibration from which all creation comes. In this space, we experience ourselves as the hollow bone through which Spirit blows the breath of life...And it is here that we remember that there is no separation. The time of separation is over!

We would love to see you in August at the Pasjak near Kastelir, Porec, Croatia. The dance begins on Friday, August 26th and continues until mid morning Sunday, August 28th, with sharings and bonding till Monday, August 29th. The donation for dancers is 230€ for those coming from Croatia. (150€ from Bosnia, 850NIS from the Middle East, 1750R from South Africa, $580 USD from USA and Europe.) If you feel called, join us as a Dancer or part of the support crew. (No prior experience required.) A love donation is suggested from the support crew. All monies received by the "For the One" Organization are used wisely and in a sacred way to support the work of the "For the One" Dance on a global level.

Greetings to All:

"The times they are a changin'". Seems we are in hyper-speed these days with all the weather "events" around the world, with political unrest and people finding their voices, with national tragedies and financial uncertainty. It can be hard to handle the energy and vibrational shifts existing currently.

Remember that you are not alone-that we are all in this together no matter our spoken language, culture, religion or politics. Together, we can offer support to each other through prayer, healing thoughts and reaching out on email, facebook, skype and the phone when we can't be together in the physical.

Remember that you don't have to do this by yourself. "Together we will weather the storms."

Love, Candy
